ZIPPITY ZIGZAGS

Talk about graphic details: Bold or gold, chevron stripes are the party motif of the moment

1. Edge up your look with some angular earrings; $30, threebridgestudio.etsy.com.
 2. Add flavor to your function with funky favor bags; $20 for 100, whiskergraphics.com.
 3. Finally, a bow tie that's just his stripe; $26, diffractionfiber.etsy.com.
 4. If you're as obsessed with this flask as we are, advise your guy to buy a slew for his groomsmen—and one for his gorgeous fiancée. "Acid Palm Petitpoint" flask, $95, jonathanadler.com.
 5. Problem: You can't find a chevron ring pillow in your wedding hue. Solution: Hire a designer to fashion a custom cushion for your I do's. Square eight-inch pillow, $34, willaskyehome.etsy.com.
 6. Rings, leoringwer.com.
 7. Show your baker this mod design for delish inspiration; Carrie Sellman for Half-Baked—The Cake Blog; thecakeblog.com.
- Wow them with watercolor invitations inspired by artist Joanna Goss. Digitally printed double-sided invitation, $739 for 100 (including printed envelopes and liners), wileyvalentine.com.
