1 THE NEXT STEP

Inspired by the patterns of North African textiles, Canvas's first carpet, the Moroccan Sabre rug, is handwoven of cotton and rayon, measures 54" x 92", and comes in green (shown), blue, or red. It is priced at $560. Call 212-414-4332 or go to ochrestore.com.

2 GARDEN PARTY

The melamine tumblers from Bongenre's Flowershow collection bring lush blossoms to an alfresco table and are durable enough for poolside toasts. A set of four 4.25"-h. cups costs $27; matching plates are also available. Visit bongenre.com.

3 ALL TIED UP

The Knot doorstop by Two's Company adds nautical flavor to any room. Made of navy or natural-color jute, it weighs 3.3 lb., stands 10" h., and costs $45 at Haus Interior. Call 212-741-0455 or go to hausinterior.com.

4 SHELL GAMES

The intricate shell inlay of the Iridescent low table by Andrianna Shamaris brings an exotic edge to a classic design. Handmade of teak, it measures 20" h. x 18" w. x 14" d. and costs $690. Call 212-388-9898 or visit andriannashamaris.com.

5 BLUE NOTES

Jonathan Adler's latest porcelain dinnerware merges traditional motifs with contemporary colors. The Greek Key and Stripe patterns, shown, are available as a dinner plate, $16; dessert plate, $12; bowl, $12; and mug, $10. Call 800-963-0691 or go to jonathanadler.com.
