WHAT'S HOT!

1 / FIGURE STUDY

With a curving frame crafted from salvaged lumber, the demilune wood console from Mecox Gardens blends dynamic design with a sense of rustic calm. The table is finished in a gray wash, measures 42" w. x 31" h. x 21" d., and costs $1,550; custom sizes and finishes are also offered. 212-249-5301; mecoxgardens.com

2 / POUR ON THE CHARM

3 / BLUE-PLATE SPECIAL

Jonathan Adler's Carnaby collection includes lamps, vases, mugs, and these geometric nesting trays made from glazed porcelain. They range in size from 4" x 9" to 6" x 12", and the set of three, which also comes in an orange-and-pink version, costs $98. 800-963-0891; jonathanadler.com

4 / SUMMER STOCK

Les Toiles du Soleil's Ara deck chair, featuring the company's signature stripes, brings style to the beach. The adjustable beech-wood frame measures 54" l. x 20" w., comes with a sling of cotton or Sunbrella fabric in a range of colorways, and costs $160. 212-229-4730; lestoilesdusoleilnyc.com

5 / ISLAND STYLE

The Borneo rattan pouf by Walker Zabriskie is covered in vintage woven mats from its namesake island. An 18" cube costs $775, and a 20" version is $820; custom sizes are available. 561-651-7442; walkerzabriskie.com
